Charlotte L'Juan Ford is the one who insisted that the PODS storage was necessary. Supposedly, all the stuff that was in the PODS is now in the shed in my backyard. I am obviously not able to see what is back there, but if it was able to be stored there when the PODS was emptied, why was the PODS needed in the first place, other than Charlotte wanting me to be in financial ruin? She also charged me $300 to have the PODS emptied and the stuff be moved to my shed. That's why there's the transfer, as you can see the reason . . . rather than a debit for the $300 to pay Charlotte.

Totalling this one is much easier than the hotels: 175.22*24 = 4205.28 and then + 137.75 . . . $4343.03 from PODS alone after Liberty Mutual quit paying. $4643.03 if including Charlotte's $300 fee.
